

21.04.2017 in Tallinn

The subject: Environments and methods in youth work and non-formal learning

Run by Lianne Teder

Participants: Tallinn University 1st and 2nd year students in youth work curriculum (I level) and youth workers from Iceland

14:10 meeting at the ground floor in Terra house Tallinn University (27 Narva road)

14:15 starting at Tallinn University house Terra, room T-307 (3rd floor), short introduction game to welcome each other

14:25 short introduction into workshop by teacher Lianne Teder

14:30 presentation by Icelandic youth workers about youth work in Iceland (possible to use data-projector)

15:00 discussion in round tables, in small groups to introduce and compare Estonian and Icelandic youth work, each participants choose one round table at the beginning, possible topics could be (you are welcome to offer topics, we may agree on them also before the round tables):

- How and for what extent schools are open and practice youth work?
- Where the youth work takes place and how it looks like (e.g youth centres, community houses etc)?
- What is done in youth centres and how they look like, what kind of services or possibilities offered for young people?
- Which activities and areas considered as youth work (e.g compared with child protection, juvenile delinquency, cultural work etc)?
- How is organized young people's participation in different levels (community, municipality, regional, national)?
- How youth associations' and organizations' work is organized or supported in youth work?

Memos will be done in each round table on flip charts. Possibly one from each table stay at the same table to introduce the previous talk with others on the next round.

15:25 choosing another round table with another topic and group members. One in each table will introduce what was talked. Continuing with discussion on topic, adding moment.

15:45 break

16:00 six thinking hats approach to Icelandic and Estonian youth work. There are 6 tables, each has a colour and introduction, how to think (red, blue – organization, white – neutral information, green – creative, yellow – positive, black – negative). Everybody will have the colour, discussion in point of view concrete thinking will be held in groups for 20 minutes. Totally three changes (3 x 20 minutes) will be made (everybody may have three different thinking attitude). Memos will be made in each group on flip chart.

17:00 silent brainstorm about differences and similarities of Estonian and Icelandic youth work – in one side of the room are flip charts for differences and on the other side flip charts for similarities. Participants will not talk and write on flip charts keywords they have recognized during the last activities.

17:15 conclusion on silent brainstorming.

17:20 good-by activity to conclude the workshop

17:30 the end of the workshop

The room is available for Islandic youth workers until 20:00 if they want to use it for discussion or compendium of the study visit.